

I hope that the FCC does not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The only time our phone rings, now, is when we know the person calling. How nice!

I used to receive 3 calls a day from solicitors, now 0. Its not broken so, don't try to fix something that is working great!

Sincerely,

Doug Schenkel